How to Make a Fabric Christmas Tree Skirt

DIY DECOR IDEAS

Looking for unique ways to dress up your Christmas tree this year? Why not try making a fabric tree skirt yourself? This simple tutorial will show you how to create a beautiful and festive tree skirt using fabric and scissors. So, get creative and have some fun with this project!

What Is a Tree Skirt?

A tree skirt is a festive decor typically placed around the base of Christmas trees to add a splash of color and style. This decorative item is usually circular or oval and may be made from various materials, including fabric, velvet, felt, or wood.

In addition to providing an attractive accent for Christmas trees, tree skirts also serve an essential functional purpose: they cover Christmas tree stands and hold them in place. So, if you want a fun and festive way to dress the bottom of your Christmas tree this year, consider adding a beautiful tree skirt to the mix.

Different Types of Tree Skirts You Can Choose From

When it comes to tree skirts, there are various options. Some popular tree skirt styles include tree collars and tree stands....

2022 Holiday Colors & Decor Expertise

It's that time of year again. If you haven't started digging into decorating for the season, you no doubt soon will be. And given that we find ourselves closer to "normal" than we've been in a while, you'll likely be welcoming friends and loved ones into your home again. (How great is that?!)

Let's make the journey from your average Wednesday home decor to winter wonderland just a bit easier. No need to go searching for all the latest trends and tips. We've done that for you so you can stroll through some of the best tips and tricks we found about holiday colors, decor, and that little bit of special something for your home this year.

Holiday Colors from Traditional to Wildly Original to Suit Your Style

Every year brings different takes on holiday colors to get just the feel you're looking to greet your guests with on those special nights ahead — and to enjoy every night yourself.

Let's kick things off with a trusted source, Better Homes & Gardens. They're coming in hot by cooling things down and with a white Christmas tree. As the folks at Better Homes wisely share, a white tree "lends itself well to almost any palette, so you can use it to create a rustic farmhouse look or cover it with a rainbow of bright ornaments."

And speaking of rustic farmhouse design, holiday decorating can introduce starkly different colors than your normal decor. Better Homes & Gardens has a hack for that, "You don't have to go all out on red and green if that's not your normal year-round aesthetic: White, black, navy, natural wood tones, and other neutrals can all look just as festive as more traditional Christmas colors."

Bye-bye, basic holiday palette. Hello, Veronika Lipar, fashion trend analyst, stylist, editor, and founder of Brunette from Wall Street. Her tour of trends answers the burning question of decorating fashionably by looking to fashion itself, "...Christmas decorating trends follow fashion trends. So, the most fashionable colors of Holiday Season 2022 are actually the same we wear this season. We just pair them differently."

She offers themes to show the way, like "Christmas at the Manor House" a maximalist vibe with a snuggly welcome. "Imagine a manor house in the English countryside surrounded by old oaks and little forest animals. Green shades of old oaks are lifted by shots of the bright accents of orange and opulent touches of honey and brown."

Or boldly beautiful "Pink Cafeteria Christmas." With an obvious emphasis on pink, it's "a sophisticated theme in a modern neutral pink palette with a little bit of gold and cowboy boots Christmas ornament that celebrate the accessories of urban life... perfect to use if you want to create a calming look in your home. Calming yet fun, luxurious, and special."

The color trends takeaway is simple: Whatever colors you truly love in your home, you can make them the theme of your holiday decor. Lean in and have fun with it. READ FULL ARTICLE
